Reflections from Ronda

Happy Spring All!

The Gallatin County Homemakers are gearing up for the Peony Festival 5K Fun Run/Walk. See enclosed flyer for details about this event. All proceeds will go toward the Mayme Walters

Homemaker Scholarship fund.

The KEHA State Meeting will be held in Lexington this year at the Hyatt. Five Homemakers and I are attending and representing us at the conference. And, we have 14 Area Cultural Arts blue ribbon projects that will be competing at the state level.

This year, the Extension Office is conducting Extension Nights at the Gallatin County Fair. 4-H, Agriculture, Family & Consumer Sciences, and Homemakers are teaming up to hold fun kid/family events and activities each night at the Fair Exhibit Hall. A flyer of all the activities is enclosed in this newsletter. Come out and join us for all the fun!

Also remember, Fair Open Class Exhibits will be accepted on June 11th from 9:00 a.m.--12:00 p.m. with judging beginning at 1:00 p.m. Volunteers are needed to help enter the entries. Call our office at (859) 567-5481 if you are interested in helping.

Until next month, Be Healthy, Happy and Safe!

Monthly Organization Tip

Paper clutter seems to grow overnight. Mail often includes ads, catalogs, bills, and letters of various kinds. Children add papers and projects from school. Newspapers and magazines pile up while waiting to be read. Take control over paper clutter. When you bring in the mail or when your children bring newsletters or notices home from school and club meetings, look at the items quickly. If you don't have time to read them carefully at the time, don't put them in a pile, but place them in a folder or basket to read later that day or the next. Keep them moving along.

2025 Homemaker Council Dates

Cooking Through the Calendar

May: Banana Pancakes

Ingredients:

2 large very ripe bananas
1 cup low-fat milk
2 Tbsp. packed light brown sugar
1 1/2 Tbsp. vanilla extract
Cinnamon
1 1/4 cups all-purpose flour
2 tsp. baking powder
1/4 tsp. salt
2 tsp. ground cinnamon
1/4 cup chopped pecans or walnuts (optional)
Nonstick cooking spray

Optional Topping:

Nonfat light vanilla yogurt
Peanut butter
Sliced bananas

Directions:

1. Wash hands with warm water and soap, scrubbing for at least 20 seconds.
2. Pre-heat a skillet or griddle on the stove over medium-low heat.
3. In a medium bowl, mash the very ripe bananas using a fork or masher. Stir in the milk, brown sugar and vanilla extract. Mix until combined.
4. Add the flour, baking powder, salt and cinnamon. Mix just until the batter is moistened with no dry spots remaining. Batter will be lumpy. Fold in nuts if using.
5. Spray the heated skillet or griddle with nonstick cooking spray. Drop about 1/4 cup of the batter into sections of the pan and spread out each into a 4-inch round.
6. Cook pancakes until bubbles form on top and the edges start to brown. Flip and continue cooking until the bottoms of the pancakes are golden brown and easily release from the pan, about 3-4 minutes more.
7. Transfer the pancakes to a warm plate. Repeat cooking the remaining batter.
8. To serve, stack 2 pancakes on a plate and top with desired toppings. Serve immediately.
9. Refrigerate leftovers within 2 hours.

Spring Cleaning for Your Mental Health

Ever feel like your home is practically shouting at you to tidy up? You're not alone! With busy schedules and endless to-do lists, it's easy for clutter to pile up—along with your stress levels. While spring cleaning might seem like just another chore, it can actually work wonders for your mental health. A fresh, organized home doesn't just look good; it helps you feel better, too.

Believe it or not, clutter can contribute to feelings of anxiety, overwhelm and even depression. When you're surrounded by mess and disorganization, it's a constant reminder of everything you still need to do. On the flip side, an orderly space can foster mental clarity, reduce stress and give you a sense of calm. If you're ready to spruce up your home—and your mind—here are some practical strategies:

Prioritize tasks: Start small instead of throwing yourself into a massive cleaning frenzy. Pick one manageable job—like decluttering a drawer or organizing a single shelf—and go from there. Success with smaller tasks can motivate you to tackle bigger ones later on.

Focus on one room at a time: It's easy to get stuck rushing from one part of the house to another, only to realize you've created more chaos. Concentrate on one area until it's done. Checking off each room provides a sweet sense of accomplishment.

Use a timer: Got a big job ahead, like sorting through an entire closet? Break it down. Set a timer for 20 or 30 minutes and work until it goes off. This keeps you focused, helps prevent procrastination, and makes large tasks feel more approachable.

Spread out the cleaning: Unless you thrive on marathon cleaning sessions, don't try to do everything at once. For most of us, it's easier on both mind and body to spread tasks over several days or weeks. This way, you won't burn out before you're done.

Ask for help: Do you have more on your plate than you can handle alone? Call in reinforcements! Friends, family, or even roommates can make big projects more manageable. Plus, it can actually be fun when you're working together. Crank up the music, chat and turn it into a social event.

Mindful cleaning: As you dust or scrub, pay attention to the sensations in your body. Feel your muscles working, notice the scents around you and focus on the moment. This kind of mindfulness can reduce stress and help you relax.

Celebrate your progress: Give yourself a pat on the back or even a small reward each time you complete a task. Recognizing your achievements keeps you motivated and encourages a positive outlook.

Remember, the goal of spring cleaning isn't just a squeaky-clean home, it's also about giving your mental health a little TLC. By chipping away at clutter, focusing on one task at a time, and inviting mindfulness into your routine, you can turn spring cleaning into a surprisingly refreshing and stress-relieving experience.
